Data Notes:

The numbers displayed in this chart indicate the minimum AP Exam score required for credit at each institution. Empty cells indicate that a policy was not reported to the College Board and could not be located on the campus's website, suggesting that the campus may not have a credit policy for the exam. These data represent the best available information at the time of collection, but because policies change over time, they may not always be current. Please consult institutions directly for the most current policies.

This document represents a snapshot of data available to the College Board as of 10/08/2015.

For more information on credit-granting recommendations, please refer to aphighered.collegeboard.org/setting-credit-placement-policy/credit-granting-recommendations and aphighered.collegeboard.org/exams/scoring.
